Procedure 87-8 (Complete and sign the statement below.)

1. I was a resident of VENEZUELA on the date of my arrival in the United States. I am not a United States citizen. I have not been lawfully accorded the privilege of residing permanently in the United States as an immigrant.

2. I am temporarily present in the United States for the primary purpose of studying or securing training required to qualify me to practice a profession or professional specialty at the University of Chicago.

3. I will receive compensation for personal services performed in the United States. This compensation qualifies for exemption from withholding of federal income tax under the tax treaty between the United States and VENEZUELA in an amount not in excess of $5,000 for any taxable year. I have not previously claimed an income tax exemption under this treaty for income received as a teacher, researcher, or student before the date of my arrival in the United States.

4. I arrived in the United States on __________________ (the date of last arrival in U.S. before beginning study at the United States educational institution). I understand that the treaty exemption under Article 21(1) is available only for compensation paid during a period of five taxable years beginning with the taxable year that includes my arrival date.

I certify that the information I have provided above is true, correct and complete, and that statements one through five of Procedure 87-8 apply to me. A copy of the treaty article citation for which I am claiming exemption appears in the box below.

Article 21(1) Students, Trainees, Teachers and Researchers

1. a) Except as provided in paragraph 2, an individual who is a resident of a Contracting State at the beginning of his visit to the other Contracting State and who is temporarily present in that other Contracting State for the primary purpose of:
   i) studying at a university or other recognized educational institution in that other Contracting State, or
   ii) securing training required to qualify him to practice a profession or professional specialty, or
   iii) studying or doing research as a recipient of a grant, allowance, or award from a governmental, religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational organization, shall be exempt from tax by that other Contracting State with respect to the amounts described in subparagraph b) of this paragraph for a period not exceeding 5 taxable years from the date of his arrival in the other Contracting State, and for such additional period of time as is necessary to complete, as a full-time student, educational requirements as a candidate for a postgraduate or professional degree from a recognized educational institution.

b) The amounts referred to in subparagraph a) of this paragraph are:
   i) payments from abroad, other than compensation for personal services, for the purpose of his maintenance, education, study, research, or training;
   ii) the grant, allowance, or award; and
   iii) income from personal services performed in that other Contracting State in an aggregate amount not in excess of five thousand United States dollars ($5,000) or its equivalent in Venezuelan bolivares for the taxable year concerned.

POLICIES REGARDING TAX TREATY EXEMPTIONS AT THE UNIVERSITY

According to the VENEZUELA student treaty article, the first $5,000 of compensation paid to you in the calendar year may be exempt from tax. The $5,000 limit is for each calendar year; you may not claim the treaty benefit at the University and at another institution within the same calendar year.

Should your calendar year earnings exceed the $5,000 limit and you notice that no Federal or State tax has yet been withheld from your paycheck, it is your responsibility to inform the Payroll Department immediately, (773) 702-5989.

It is also your responsibility to maintain the appropriate, unexpired, "employment-authorized" or student visa classification during the period that you are receiving the benefits of this tax treaty exemption and employed at the University.

You must complete the Form 8233 and 87-8 Revenue Procedure Statement for each calendar year (or portion of the calendar year) in which you claim the tax exemption. You are also required to file the appropriate income tax return at calendar year-end.

Please certify your acknowledgment of the policies presented above by signing below.
